DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claim 17 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. It is unclear how the source trajectory can be both linear and circular at the same time.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claims 1, 3-7, 15, and 18-21 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Dobbins, III US 4,903,204. Dobbins, III shows all of the features of the instant invention including a digital tomosynthesis device and method (abstract) using a processor to control and process the images, where the source moves in a linear trajectory parallel to the detector (figure 4a) reconstructing the 3D space as 2D slices. (See also column 2 lines 52-68.)

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claims 2, 8-14, 16, and 22-25 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

6. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: in the digital tomosynthesis method and apparatus as claimed, the allowable subject matter addresses specifics of the trajectory or the reconstruction algorithm that are neither shown nor fairly suggested in the prior art.

Conclusion

7. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Nambu et al. US 6,196,715 B1 shows a linear tomosynthesis system.
